

Albury Bible Church (ABC) is looking for a Minister/Pastor

Albury Bible Church is looking for a permanent full-time Minister/Pastor to lead and oversee our FIEC congregation.

While Christ alone, Faith alone and Scripture alone are central requirements for this role, this position requires someone who is mature in Christian faith, prepared to uphold the statements of beliefs of Albury Bible Church.

The church is looking for someone who is keen to lead us and work with lay leadership in discipling members and sharing Jesus with our community. Together with our church volunteers you would be responsible for:

- Working to fulfill the vision of the church outlined in our Future Thinking document (see our website www.alburybiblechurch.com.au)
- Planning of Sunday church services
- Leading and teaching the church
- Pastoral care of church members
- Oversight of volunteer recruitment and training
- The church Leadership Team (LT) as Chair
- The administration committee (Admin Team)

Required qualifications in accordance with 1 Timothy 3:1-7:

Bachelor of Theology or equivalent at a reformed Evangelical College

Prior experience desirable.

Application process

To make an application for this position, please submit

- A CV including 3 referees and
- A letter outlining the reasons for your interest in this role including your experience with regard to the above listed selection criteria to minister@alburybiblechurch.com.au

Any questions about the position or application process can be sent to the same email address. Further information and a copy of our church's constitution is available on request. Applicants should be Australian Citizens, Permanent Residents or persons who hold a valid work permit or visa to work in Australia.
